

Weekly Class Newsletter

November 28, 2016

Weekly Learning Targets

Math:

- I can review the coordinate plane and multiplying and dividing rational numbers
- I can add and subtract positive and negative integers

Science:

- I can identify the physical and chemical properties of matter and how they can be used for classification.

ELA:

- I can understand the purpose of an anecdote.
- I can monitor my comprehension by asking clarifying questions or confirmation.
- I can summarize my text.
- I can identify the author's tone in literary work
- I can write using tone.
- I can determine the main idea of an informational text based on details in text.

World Culture:

- I can explain how French Canadians in Quebec have worked to preserve their culture.
- I can explain how the resources of Ontario has made it the industrial heartland of Canada.
- I can explain how the lives of indigenous people of Canada were changed by immigrants from other countries.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students are to continue to read or watch the news Monday-Thursday and summarize the most important news

Make sure you continue take advantage of think through math and imagine learning. Students are encouraged to use it at least 1 hour a week.

In efforts to have students at school on time, buses 3 and 6 will pick students up 15 minutes earlier. These are the buses that come from Arlington.

Tutoring invitations have been sent out and tutoring has started.

Tuesdays- Math tutoring 3:30-4:30

Wednesdays- ELA tutoring 3:30-4:30

CONTACT US

Miss Yacoub – Science

missyacoub@manaraacademy.org

Miss Lowe – Math

rlope@manaraacademy.org

Mrs. Ossai – ELA

cossai@manaraacademy.org

Mr. Glover – World Culture

cglover@manaraacademy.org

